Dear Prof. Njoroge,

CONFIDENTIAL

RE: SUSPENSION

I write to convey the resolution of the Council further to its Extraordinary Special meetings held on both the 24th and 25th November 2015 at the University of Nairobi Council Chambers. The resolution was arrived at after taking account of your submissions during your appearance before the full Council on 25th November 2015.

In accordance with the University's formal disciplinary procedures you are now suspended with immediate effect from employment at the University of Nairobi while further investigations on acts of insubordination are carried out. The suspension will take effect immediately and for a period not exceeding 6 months. During the suspension, you will be entitled to house and medical allowances.

During your suspension, you are instructed not to contact by any means (directly or indirectly) any staff or partners of the university. You are also not required to be physically present at the University premises or to attend work during this period. Failure to comply with these instructions may in itself constitute misconduct (or, if this investigation is undermined in any way, gross misconduct), which may result in disciplinary action against you.
